IMPORTANT

We have recently experienced a surge in demand for booth space at all our shows, and we are thrilled to see so many businesses interested in participating in our events. As a result, we will now only be offering multi-show booth packages. This change will allow us to accommodate more businesses and provide a better experience for all participants. We understand that this may be an adjustment for some of our regular exhibitors, but we hope you will see the benefits of this change in the long run. Thank you for your understanding and continued support.
