- On June 17, they all came together for the very first time.
- One day later, on June 18, they had their first rehearsal.
- On July 4, they had their first performance together.
- Twenty-two concerts later, on July 29, they went on stage where they laughed, they cried, they were silly, they were emotional, and most of all, they had one last performance together.

As our way of saying thank you for your support, we thought we'd share photos of some of those last concert moments with you.

← To open this final show, Momi and Nigel decided to switch from juggling the usual balls to juggling a variety of items tossed Simone's way by Nigel. We wish they'd done this for every show!
