

Development Cycle

Orion shared they are on a handful of spaces currently, as they are still very involved in community engagement, there are continued designing, studies, and surveys that are taking place before moving into permitting