Living in the Red River Valley is unique to any other area in the country. Becoming a part of your Chamber brings your voice to the community. Your voice educates others and promotes your industry.

Our Chamber has a group of members with ag interest, that meet throughout the year. This group works on educating themselves on what is currently happening in the ag industry and how it relates to us. Then, as advocates of The Chamber, they are more confident with the knowledge they have learned to take that and inform the public. Bringing ag awareness is one of the key efforts to The Chamber Ag Committee.

Joining the Agribusiness Committee provides the opportunity for you to bring your voice to the community, and network while doing something great for your community!
