

School to Prison Pipeline

Free, virtual training | CEUs available

June 14
9 - 10:30 a.m. CT
Zoom

This training has 1.5 hours of continuing education approved for IL LCPC / LPC, IL LCSW / LSW, and IL Nursing (LPN, RN, APN) under IDFPR Professional Counselor CE License No. 197000263 and IDFPR Nurse CE Sponsor License No. 236.000184. An application has been made to IAODAPCA for 1.5 contact hours.

This training, by Jeremy Allen with Southern Illinois University - Carbondale, will provide education on the school to prison pipeline and how schools have historically instituted harsher discipline strategies for students of color. This training will provide facts regarding the long-term effects of this phenomena and how it greatly impacts positive outcomes for young people of color.

Objectives:

1. Gain insight into the impact of racism related to how individuals interact with children
2. Gain knowledge regarding the damage of labeling a child and how this label can become a self-fulfilling prophecy
3. Learn about effects of negative disciplinary strategies
4. Learn the long-term results of this phenomena
5. Solution-focused discussion regarding this phenomena

To register, visit bit.ly/0614bcc. For more information, contact hannah.chapman@centerstone.org or david.mills@centerstone.org.

This training is brought to you by Centerstone's Trauma, Treatment and Training (CT3) program, Centerstone's Building Compassionate Communities (BCC) program, and Heritage Behavioral Health Center.

About Centerstone

Centerstone is a nonprofit health system providing mental health and substance use disorder treatments. Services are available nationally through the operation of outpatient clinics, residential programs, the use of telehealth and an inpatient hospital. Centerstone also features specialized programs for the military community, therapeutic foster care, children's services and employee assistance programs. Centerstone's Research Institute provides guidance through research and technology, leveraging the best practices for use in all our communities. Centerstone's Foundation secures philanthropic resources to support the work and mission of delivering care that changes people's lives.

