Art Through Struggle Gallery in We Are of This Place: The Pueblo Story – the next indoor mural project is by NSRGNTS, two Indigenous artists based in Albuquerque. NSRGNTS is Leah Povi Marie Lewis (Laguna, Taos, Zuni Pueblos/Hopi/Diné) and Votan Henriquez (Maya/Nahua). Leah and Votan are becoming well known for their unique anime-inspired style of mural painting in vivid colors. Their artwork for IPCC will focus on Pueblo empowerment of past, present, and future. The mural will place emphasis on Po'pay as a Pueblo role model and a figure of strength. The space will invite storytelling and teaching for all ages, through the mural's approachable style that will be accessible even for our youngest audiences and community members. The reception is scheduled for the evening of Friday, June 28, from 5-7pm. The exhibition will be on view from June 28, 2024 through June 1, 2025.

Albuquerque, NM 87104

01:00 PM - 02:00 PM MST

Monique Silva, 505-212-7046

msilva@indianpueblo.org

On Saturday, July 13, our storyteller will be pottery sculptor Ed Lewis (Acoma), and our book title will be Shaped By Her Hands: Potter Maria Martinez by Anna Harber Freeman and Barbara Gonzales, illustrated by Aphelandra. This book is available at the Indian Pueblo Store here.

Shaped By Her Hands tells the story of Pueblo artist Maria Martinez (San Ildefonso) and her iconic black pottery. This inspiring book teaches children about Maria's work sharing Tewa pottery traditions in New Mexico and across the country.

After learning about Maria's work, Ed will lead the group in creating their own pottery pieces. The pieces will be fired in a kiln and be available to pick up by the next Saturday, July 20. Due to limited kiln space, attendance will be limited to 20 children.

Opening Reception for Desert Stories: The Art of Kelly Frye & Jazmin Novak
Indian Pueblo Cultural Center

Albuquerque, NM 87104
05:00 PM - 07:00 PM MST
Michelle Lanteri, 505-843-7270
mlanteri@indianpueblo.org

The Indian Pueblo Cultural Center is honored to celebrate the opening of Desert Stories: The Art of Kelly Frye & Jazmin Novak, an artist-led exhibition on view in the Artists Circle Gallery from July 19, 2024 through October 27, 2024. Collaboratively curated by Kelly Frye (Tesuque Pueblo/Mescalero Apache descent) and Jazmin Novak (Diné) of the Santa Fe, New Mexico area, Desert Stories interweaves visual narratives of the Southwest in paintings, glass, clay, and bronze artworks. In Frye's paintings, she reorganizes geometric patterns into symphonies of color that melt into each other. In Novak's sculpture, she uses asymmetry in her color palettes to give emphasis to certain parts of desert animals, like rabbits and coyotes. Bringing together two- and three-dimensional expressions creates an innovative take on the world of the Southwest desert as seen in the artists' reimaginings of angular pottery designs and iconic, brush-dwelling animals. Using color as a method of disorientation, Frye and Novak make us see familiar Southwest elements in a completely different and unfamiliar light.

On Saturday, July 27, our storyteller will be Jocelyn Sanchez (Santa Ana), and our book title will be The Earth Under Sky Bear's Feet by Joseph Bruchac, illustrated by Thomas Locker.

The Earth Under Sky Bear's Feet is a collection of 12 short retellings of tales from various Native American cultures, all seen from the perspective of Sky Bear, or the Big Dipper, as she observes the Earth from the sky. This beautifully written and illustrated book will give children a taste of Native American cultures from across North America.

Executive Director Circle ? Fall Cohort

<https://prosperapartners.org/event/ed-circle-fall-2024/>

11:30 AM - 12:30 PM MT

Vicki Pozzebon, 505-501-8206

info@prosperapartners.org

Being a nonprofit Executive Director can feel like an impossible job. Let our team provide one-on-one support with proven solutions to make it more bearable.

Join Executive Directors from around the country to explore a variety of topics in a confidential, facilitated virtual space – don't worry, we are known for facilitating virtual spaces that create meaningful connections! Open to anyone who is a current executive director of a nonprofit organization of any size in the United States.

Topics we'll explore together:

Difficult conversations with board members

How to get more strategic with fundraising

Shared leadership that also includes shared responsibility

How to complete the stress cycle to minimize burnout

Moving past talk about equity, justice, and inclusion and taking anti-oppression actions

Held virtually from 11:30 am-12:30 pm MT on:

Thursday, September 12

Thursday, September 26

Thursday, October 10

Thursday, October 24

Registration includes all sessions that will occur and attendance at all sessions is strongly recommended.

We offer a tiered pricing model to make it possible for more to attend. For those who have the ability to pay it forward, we ask that you purchase tickets at the higher end to help others participate.
