*Workshop July 7-12 * Showcase July 13*

Students interested in all things theatre, both on stage AND off are encouraged to attend one or both sessions of the week-long summer workshop that will explore all aspects of theatre.

The ACTING sessions are split into two: A morning session is available to students grades 7-12 while the afternoon session is available to students grades 3-6. Students will hone their acting skills. Through acting games and collaboration exercises students will learn to be comfortable on stage before quickly transferring into 'rehearsal' mode to work on the workshop's performance showcase.

Additionally, the exciting afternoon session for students in grades 7-12 explores TECHNICAL THEATRE and the world of theatrical design. Whether exploring lighting, prop, set, or sound design, the sessions will give a well-rounded, hands-on technical education where students will work on becoming the crew for the performance showcase (when they're not performing, if they are doing both sessions).

Led by experienced theatre instructor Chad Tallon along with professional technician Lexa Walker and assisted by actor Riley Bannister from July 7-12, the workshop culminates with the showcase on July 13 for students to show off their new skills! Along with their instruction, workshop-goers will receive a t-shirt and a ticket to attend a professional Tibbits Summer Theatre production.

Hilarious, heartwarming family comedy about not letting go. Nick is a single, likeable, Italian-American guy from Hoboken, whose parents retire and move to Florida. Nick remains in New Jersey, however, and sees both sets of his grandparents every Sunday for dinner. This is a regular and beloved routine until Nick is offered his dream job across the country that would take him away from his loving, but eccentric, grandparents. When he tells them, the news doesn't sit well. It begins a series of elaborate and hilarious plots, schemes and conspiracies by the grandparents to keep Nick around, including bringing to dinner the lovely, and single, Caitlin O'Hare as bait. You've heard of the "Parent Trap?" THIS is "The Grandparent Trap!" Written by Joe DiPietro, the author of I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change, it will appeal to young and old alike!

Enjoy a delightful array of beer and wine samples from local, regional, and national brands. Savor delectable eats from local food trucks and relish chef-prepared bites from the zoo's restaurants. Immerse yourself in the sounds of live music playing throughout the zoo as you explore, and rest assured, you can visit your favorite animals without the kiddos – it's our secret!
