US Army Captain Jack Ludwig begins writing to Louise Rabiner, an aspiring actress in NYC, hoping to meet her someday if WWII allows. But, as the war continues, it threatens their relationship before it even starts.

This joyous and heartwarming tale is told through the letters of the playwright's parents. The results are anything but expected.

"An affecting love letter to unlikely romance! A poignant, funny tribute to the enduring power of human connection."

-The Washington Post

"A moving, funny, and heartbreaking reminder of what we should strive to become, individually and as a country."

-Broadway World

We are excited to announce that the Ellenville Central School District is hosting a Career Fair for students in Grades 7 through 12 who are either seeking immediate employment or exploring career options for the future.

We are reaching out to see if your business/organization is interested in setting up a table at the event. We are also asking if any businesses would be willing to host mock interviews for students and provide them with on-the-spot feedback regarding their interview skills. Additional information is outlined below.

Location: Ellenville Junior/Senior High School (Senior High School Gymnasium)

Date: Thursday, May 9, 2024

Event Time: 9:50 AM to 1:45 PM (lunch provided)

Set Up/Arrival Time: Anytime between 8:45 AM - 9:45 AM

RVSP: To reserve a table, please contact Maria Smith

Phone: 845 - 647- 0138

Email: msmith@ecs.k12.ny.us

You may use this event to:

Promote employment/training opportunities offered by your organization/business.

Provide applications for employment/training.

Host on-the-spot interviews (we can set up a private interview area if requested).

Host mock interviews for students seeking feedback on their interviewing skills.

If you are unable to attend in person and would like to send information regarding your organization/business and/or applications for employment to be made available to students, please contact Maria Smith to coordinate a time to drop these documents off.

We hope you will consider participating in this exciting opportunity for our students!
