To Whom This May Concern,

HHC Supply: A Division of Hacienda Home Centers is a local New Mexico Small business that has a passion for giving back to our community. HHC Supply is partnering alongside the Duke City Gladiators for Wilson Middle School in the SE Albuquerque area to host a community Jacket drive for children in this underserved community. The Duke City Gladiators will be handing out the coats collected, Event is planned for December 10th. All coats need to be in no later than December 3rd.

Must be new coats

Sizes:

Girls 10-16 and small-large adult

Boys 10-16 and Small to XL in Adults

HHC is asking for additional partners for donations of new jackets for children in this community. Additionally, drop locations for the community to drop off their donations. Your contribution is very much appreciated, and we are excited to work together with the community to help the children in need!

Please for any additional information please contact me directly.
