Neil Diamond Tribute

Diamond look and sound alike Keith Allyn began his career in stand-up comedy at the age of 14 opening for such greats as Chris Rock, Tim Allen and Robin Williams. At 21, Keith discovered his musical talents while performing "All Shook Up" at a karaoke night. The girls went wild, and Keith was hooked. For several years he continued to perform as an Elvis tribute artist and was voted a top-ten Elvis by Graceland.

Later, trying to impress a girl who was a huge Neil Diamond fan, he called her on the phone and in his best "Neil" voice sang "Hello Again" from the Jazz Singer. It became their song, she became his wife, and he became The Diamond Image.

Recently Keith was selected to be one of only a handful of Neil Diamond Tribute artists in the world to be featured in a documentary entitled "Diamond Mountain", actually being voted # 1 by his peers!

After having performed over a decade in Branson MO., Keith Allyn now travels extensively throughout the United States paying tribute to America's favorite singer song writer, Neil Diamond. Allyn's mesmerizing style, intimacy with audiences, and cover of Diamond's top hits makes A Neil Diamond Tribute the only way to "Experience the feel of Neil".
