

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Country Music Artist and *GRAMMY Nominee Steven Cade Hosts 'A Night Honoring Veterans' at Dosey Doe - The Big Barn

Modern country artist Steven Cade is raising awareness of the importance of music by donating guitars to inspire those in need. His Giving Guitars Tour visits shelters across the country that offer housing and services to families, youth and individuals experiencing homelessness (including foster children, at-risk-youth and veterans). Cade visits the facilities, interacts with residents, donates a guitar and holds live performances. To date, Cade has visited over 125 organizations in 20 states across 3 countries and gifted over 200 new guitars. Cade shares hope and healing through the power of music.

Steven Cade will host 'A Night Honoring Veterans.' His Giving Guitars Foundation will donate a new guitar and Operation Song will donate a songwriting session to a veteran in the PTSD/Camp Hope program. Steven Cade will be performing live to help raise awareness for veterans suffering from PTSD.

Co-sponsored by 22 Salute, Smoke N Memories. Operation Song, PTSD Foundation and Camp Hope, who will attend to accept the guitar and songwriting session on behalf of the veteran. Free tastings from 22 Salute beverages.
