

Celebrating Indigenous People

with a Series of Speakers, Hands-On Exhibitions, Music & Storytelling
at Meigs Point Nature Center

Wild Turkeys

October 5 at 10:00 - 11:00am

Richard Taylor, CT DEEP Master Wildlife Conservationist will present a program on Connecticut's Eastern Wild Turkey. No reservations required

Paleoamericans and Peopling the Northeast

October 6 at 10:00 - 11:00am

Dr. David Leslie's presentation will focus on the archaeological and geologic evidence surrounding the timing of the arrival of the first peoples of Southern New England. Reservations required email meigspointevents@gmail.com

Native American Storytelling with Michael Caduto

October 12 at 10:00 - 11:00am

Using song, chants, native instruments, dance and stories from the Native cultures of North America, and explore the true nature of Thanksgiving. Reservations required email meigspointevents@gmail.com

Atlatl

October 13 at 10:00 - 11:00am

Learn all about the atlatl with Gary Nolf and try your hand at throwing this Native American spear. No reservations required

Quinnetukut: Our Homeland, Our History

October 26 at 10:00 - 11:00am

with Darlene Kascak of the Schaghticoke Tribal Nation. Learn of CT's history from includes the Native American perspective. Reservations required email meigspointevents@gmail.com

Sponsored by Friends of Hammonasset

Any person who attends Friends of Hammonasset, Inc. events grants permission to the Friends of Hammonasset Inc., its affiliates and agents to record his or her visual/audio images, including, but not limited to, photographs, digital images, voices, sound or video recordings, audio clips, or accompanying written descriptions, and without notifying such person, to use his or her name and such images for any purpose of Friends of Hammonasset, Inc. including advertisements and materials.

