

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Release Date: 10/10/2025

Missoula Community Concert Band in Concert

The MCCB is thrilled to celebrate its 35th anniversary by presenting its annual free fall concert, titled "A Musical Celebration," on Monday, November 3, 2025, at the Missoula Community Theater, starting at 7:30 P.M.

Under the direction of conductor Don Jaramillo and hosted by Montana PBS personality Tom Cook, the band will perform music that appeals to all ages. The program will include Joseph Benjamin Earp's "Red, White and Blue" in celebration of our Veterans, Alan Silvestri's music from the movie "Back to the Future III," among other selections.

For thirty-three years, the Missoula Community Concert Band has provided performances that engage and inspire music lovers of all ages. The MCCB is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and performing concert band music in the Western Montana area. It is open to all adults who play or have previously played wind and percussion instruments and want to get back into music.

Media Contact

Tracy Hardy, President

Missoula Community Band (Facebook)

president@missoulaband.org