WELCOME TO BEYOND BANKING!

Join us April 7, for an engaging presentation on economics that will give you valuable insights that can help you make better business decisions. We will be discussing a broad overview of the United States, Colorado, and Regional economies and the current challenges they may face.

Featuring Guest Speaker: Tatiana Bailey

Tatiana Bailey has her master's in applied economics and her doctorate in public health, both from the University of Michigan. In the health care arena, Dr. Bailey has focused on programs that aim to increase access and quality while reducing costs. She also presents to audiences who wish to be better informed about the general framework of the health care system in the United States. In the economic development field, Dr. Bailey presents nation-wide, year-round on the current national, state and local economies. She also participates in various economic development initiatives and has particularly focused on closing the skills gap.

Currently, she is the Director of the UCCS Economic Forum and serves as an economic development resource to both businesses and government. In 2016, Dr. Bailey was a "Woman of Influence," and in 2018, was named "Business Leader of the Year."

Thursday, April 7 | 4:30 pm - 6:30 pm at Marriott Colorado Springs - 5580 Tech Center Dr.

Hors D'Oeuvres, beer and wine will be served.
