

Beneficent[®]

— Meaning Doing Good For Others —

Applying for long-term care financial programs can feel like you are in a maze.

Beneficent quickly navigates you to the best financial program to help pay for senior care, including adult day care, home care, assisted living, or nursing homes for you or your loved one.

Join us for an informative class where you will learn:

- How to access government programs that will pay for long-term care
- How to avoid common mistakes when planning for long-term care
- Myths about what you will “have” to give up for long-term care
- Steps to take NOW... before needing long-term care
- Pathways to approval for long-term care benefits
- Top 10 ways to pay for care

Beneficent is a certified CE Approved Provider by the NASW and PACE.

Why should you consider long-term care financial programs?

Facts

Average Colorado annual costs of:

	$18,000 Adult Day Care
	$57,000 Assisted Living
	$56,000 Home Care
	$94,000 Nursing Home (semi-private)
	$108,000 Nursing Home (private)

Someone turning 65 today has almost a 70% chance of needing long-term care services.

Your loved ones are counting on you!
72% worry they will not be able to provide adequate care if a senior loved one needs it.

In 2020, Beneficent helped each of our clients save on average

$178,000
in long-term care costs.