WCHS Blood Donations Potentially Save 120 Lives

Washington County High School held its first blood drive of the year to benefit Sheppard Blood Center, which serves Washington County Regional Medical Center. September 5th, a total of 62 people presented to donate which resulted in 40 good units of blood. "Thank you for those donations, for your thoughtful and helpful staff and co-coordinators, and for the students who were just a pleasure to work with throughout the blood drive," said Sheppard Center Coordinator Jacqueline Clemmons. Another drive will be held in January. Ambassador sponsor and teacher Andrea Miller is WCHS coordinator. Three lives are saved per unit of blood collected.
